EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Technical Support Engineer, Microverse Enterprise Inc.

Remote

Jan 2022 — Present

Microverse is an online organization that offers a remote software development Bootcamp. I offered technical support to junior developers through code reviews, focusing on ensuring team contributions, collaboration, and pair-programming.

- Achieved high performance, high-quality code, best practices, and professional documentation from students by using linter checks and conducting excellent detailed reviews. I saved the company time and cost of handling course module repeats by optimizing the student success in the program.

Mentor (volunteer), Microverse

Remote

Sep 2021 — Nov 2022

Contributed to the leadership and mentorship program by hosting personal development sessions through Zoom meetings for newly enrolled Microverse students, focusing on motivation and productivity.

- Achieved a high level of satisfaction from students who I helped with managing tasks, setting SMART goals, practicing a growth mindset, and increasing productivity. Succeeded in driving my students to complete the program with impressive scores.

EDUCATION

Full Stack Development, Microverse
